

Recycle Used Athletic Shoes And make a big difference.

NEVER BEFORE HAS SO MUCH BEEN ACCOMPLISHED WITH SO LITTLE

We are asking for used athletic. Used athletic shoes fight poverty, hunger, and global warming.

This is accomplished by providing tools and education for African farmer with the MORE Farming System. This is the focus of PPPF (Perpetual Prosperity Pumps Foundation).

Instead of spending 100 years in landfills, used athletic shoes can help regenerate farm land in African villages while creating prosperity with a bottom-up approach — One family at a time.

The MORE System of farming teaches farmers how to create Modular Organic Regenerative Environments (MORE). PPPF also teach small farm business management, reforestation, marketing skills, small farm design and community development. PPPF provides free medical assistance for the families protecting them from malaria and other infectious diseases.

How your business or organization can help: We need gently used athletic shoes. The vast majority of Africans cannot afford new shoes. They are sold in major metro areas to vendors; the proceeds provide training and tools to the poorest rural farmers. Your help reusing unwanted shoes promotes recycling and energy conservation.

ADOPT-A-FAMILY PROGRAM

With each 600 pair of shoes, PPPF adopts an African family on your behalf. Your adopted family will receive 12 months of hands-on MORE training as well as tools, seeds, trees, and livestock to increase their productivity 1000% or more.

How it works

- Contact Your Local PPPF Collection Coordinator.
- He/she will deliver a Small, Attractive Container for Easy Collection of Donated Shoes
- Customers donate their used - but not abused - athletic shoes (and soccer shoes)
- You coordinator will make a monthly (more frequently if needed) pickups.
- Shoes are sent to Delaware for sorting and shipment to West Africa
- For every 600 pairs of Shoes, Your company receives a certificate bearing the name of the family benefiting from your sponsorship
- Great PR for your company!
